Dear Mr. Kneppen:

Amended 30 Day Post-General (10/21/00-11/27/00) and amended Year End (11/28/00-12/31/00) Reports will be filed separately.

Re: 30 Day Post-General Report (10/21/00-11/27/00). We requested restitution of the contribution in question in a letter dated December 11, 2000. A response was received carrying two postmarks, the first January 6th, 2001 and the second January 12th, 2001. We stamped it received on January 18th, 2001. In her response, the contributor requested a refund of the excess contribution. We have sufficient funds to make this refund, however due to circumstances beyond our control, we are unable to access its funds at the present time. We are making all possible efforts to free these funds and intend to make this refund at the earliest possible time and will at that time forward to you a photocopy of the check used to make this refund and will amend the 30 Day Post-General Report (10/21/00-11/27/00) to show this refund.

We always include a clear and conspicuous request for contributor information required by federal law in the original solicitation. If the contributor has failed to disclose any information required under federal law we promptly make a written request for this information from the contributor including a prepaid preaddressed return envelope for contributor's convenience in responding to this request. We then promptly amend our reports to include any information received as a result of this request. Reports submitted with this letter have been amended to reflect updated information received from contributors.

We have reported all our administrative expenses as required by federal law and according to the procedures set forth. No administrative expenses were or are paid for by a connected organization. Further we pay our debts in full when due and carry no debt incurred but not paid in a reporting period or which is outstanding for more than 60
